

ELKS OF VIRGINIA MEET AT NORFOLK

Several Hundred Members of Order Are in Attendance.

Norfolk, Va., August 28.—Several hundred Elks from all parts of the old Dominion descended on Norfolk this morning to attend the annual reunion of the Virginia Association, which opened a two-day session here. The largest delegation came from Richmond, and throughout the day had everything its own way, leading in the festivities and social program, which are the features of the meeting.

The reunion, which in which delegates from nearly every lodge in the state were to take part, was postponed until tomorrow so that all delegates would be present. Some of the "Upstate" members failing to arrive on time, the Elks' place. There was a band concert at the club, and during the afternoon many of the visitors and their wives were taken over the city in automobiles. Welcome signs appear all over the downtown section.

The election of officers will also take place tomorrow. It was intimated that the president-elect would be T. B. Condon, of Charlottesville, second vice-president, John F. O'Donnell, of Norfolk, third vice-president, but Mr. O'Donnell said that he will not be a candidate in opposition to any of the officers named who desire first place on the ticket.

The presence of the visitors in town became apparent early this morning when the busy card band met the Richmond delegation at the old Dominion wharf and escorted it to the Elks' Club in College Place. There was a band concert at the club, and during the afternoon many of the visitors and their wives were taken over the city in automobiles. Welcome signs appear all over the downtown section.

HEALTH OFFICER MAKES REPORT

Fifty Deaths in Petersburg During Month Ending August 26.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Hollingsbrook Street, (Telephone 1125.)

Petersburg, Va., August 28.—The report of the health officer for the month ending August 26 shows a total of fifty deaths in the city, of which seven were of non-residents.

There were twenty-two deaths of white and twenty-eight of colored persons. There were fifteen deaths of children under the age of five years, a majority of an adult over ninety years. The condition certified nine deaths. There was one death of pellagra, one of typhoid fever, and five of tuberculosis.

The bodies of nine persons who died elsewhere were brought to the city for burial, and three were shipped away.

The number of births registered during the month was sixty-five, while twenty-five colored were born.

Girl Clubs at Work.

The merchants of Petersburg are co-operating with the Southside Fair Association in offering a number of prizes to the winning members of the Girl Canning Clubs of Dinwiddie County, in their exhibits at the October fair.

There are eight of these clubs in Dinwiddie, with a membership of fifty girls. Though the exceedingly hot and dry weather have been somewhat discouraging, the girls have gone bravely on in their work and expect to make some highly creditable exhibits to be shown at the Roanoke, Richmond and Petersburg fairs. They began work on August 1 and will continue it through September.

The Fair Association is also encouraging the boys' work clubs by offering very liberal premiums for the best exhibits in this line. The boys are expected to show up handsomely.

Death in Hospital.

Sidney J. Clary, a well-known young resident of McKenry Street, twenty-six years old, died in the Petersburg Hospital yesterday afternoon of typhoid fever, after a protracted illness. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Maggie D. Clary, and his brother, F. L. Clary, of Wakefield, and three sisters, Mrs. Orelia Nunnally and Miss Pearl Clary, of this city, and Mrs. William A. Shell, of Richmond.

Ann, Hubbard, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterson, of Chesterfield County, died night before last. The body will be brought to Blanford Cemetery for burial.

Firemen En Route.

A dozen or more members of the volunteer fire department left Petersburg in uniform were in the city today on their way to Roanoke to attend the State convention of firemen.

General News Notes.

Two disastrous fires in Petersburg within two years, resulting in great destruction of property, have given rise to much comment and criticism involving the ability of the department as at present organized and equipped to successfully cope with serious fires. The probability is that an official investigation of the matter will result.

Meyer Sael, former president, and W. C. Godsey, secretary of the Elks' delegation of Petersburg Lodge, have gone to Norfolk to attend the State convention of the order.

This morning at 9 o'clock Miss Martha E. Traylor, of Pearl Street, and Walter D. Kitchen, of Matoaca, were married by the Rev. Lloyd C. Moore, of West M. E. Church.

Superintendent J. Hargrove, of the Home Beneficial Association, will give his agents their annual picnic at Swift Creek, in Chesterfield, tomorrow. Because Brunswick stew and other good things will be served.

André Vaughan, colored, was fined $50 in the Police Court this morning for running a crap game. When the place was raided night before last Vaughan escaped, but was subsequently arrested.

The protracted meeting which has been in progress for some days at Central Baptist Church, near Church Road, in Dinwiddie, has been brought to a close. There were eight conversions, and twelve who professed faith were baptized today.

Sold at Auction.

The well known property on Sycamore Street, near Washington Street, known as the Farmers' Warehouse, was sold at auction this afternoon, and was purchased by the Watson Realty Company.

The property fronts 165 feet on Sycamore Street and has a depth of 150 feet. It includes a large warehouse, it has two stores and a theatre.

CONCEDES VERMONT TO TAFT

One of Half-Dozen States Colonel Thinks President May Carry.

Oyster Bay, August 28.—There are only half a dozen States Colonel Roosevelt said tonight which he believes President Taft has a chance of carrying. One of these, he said, is Vermont, in which he is to spend the remaining half of the week of his speaking tour.

The Colonel left Oyster Bay tonight for Vermont, where he is to open his campaign at Bennington tomorrow morning.

Colonel Roosevelt said that in Vermont all the power of the mounted or organized army was against him. It is such a State, he said, he always estimated that two-thirds of the people must be for him to win an election in the face of this opposition.
